GREENEVILLE "HOOKS" HOLD ANNUAL BANQUET

One of the most enjoyable Washington socials ever held by Greeneville Hook and Ladder company No. 2 was given Friday evening in the truck house on North Main street. The evening's program was opened by the singing of America, music being furnished by Benson's orchestra. An ex-cellent cyster chowder and fixings made by Loomis was greatly enjoyed. There were two fine vaudeville acts from the Strand. A musical novelty by The Strand. A musical novelty by The Strands Twins was eleverly given, one of the young ladies being an especially fine violinist. Marshall and Covert furnished a fine singing and dancing stint. William Thwing entertained in his usual pleasing manner with original press. entertained in his usual pleasing manner with original poems. Addresses were made by ex-Mayor T. C. Murphy, Judge John H. Barnes Alderman Joseph H. George, Chief Howard L. Stanton, Francis J. Murtha and a discourse on the life of Washington was given by Attorney Harry Peterson. The toastmaster was Foreman William S. Murray. A pleasant feature of the evening was a vote to decide who was the most popular gentleman present. The result was unanimous for James Rothwell, who was presented with a very valuable token o'the occasion.

The guests of the company were Judge Barnes, Councliman Edward Crooks, ex-Mayor T. C. Murphy, Chief Stanton, Alderman J. A. George, Selectman Casper Bailey, Councilman John R. Fowler, Charles O.
